

SINGING WITH STYLE EDRIE MEANS WEEKLY

Edrie Means Weekly is an internationally recognized expert in training singers in all vocal styles and an active professional singer of Opera and Musical Theatre. Edrie is co-founder of the Contemporary Commercial Music Vocal Pedagogy Institute and is Associate Professor of Voice at Shenandoah University. Edrie served on the NATS committee for the new CM categories as well as on the advisory committee for the NATS Student Music Theatre Auditions.

EXPLORING VOCAL STYLISMS IN MUSICAL THEATRE AND COMMERCIAL MUSIC

Techniques and Application
Vocal Flexibility
Navigating a Microphone
Riffing Patterns
Cross Training and more!!

Registration opens Feb. 12, 2024

Chapter meeting schedule:

8:30 am Check in and light refreshments

9:15 am Chapter Business meeting

10:00-2:30 Interactive Sessions and Lunch

2:30-4:00 Masterclass and QnA

Cost $25.00 per Chapter member (lunch included)

$10.00 per student and non-member who may register at the door. Lunch not included.

Capital University, Conservatory of Music
2199 E Main St.
Columbus, OH 43209